about the campsite

Top quality year round campsites in the Vendée are hard to find, so we are delighted to have signed an agreement with Domaine des Forges, a site has recently been bought by Thierry and Cathy Pacteau who are transforming the site into a superb residential campsite with pitches that average over 200sq. mts. All pitches are equipped with broadband internet access and satellite television points.

The peaceful pitches are grouped around a 16th century manor house and outbuildings which house the reception, bar and snack-bar. There's a heated outdoor pool* as well as a tennis court and crazy golf plus the bonus of a 2 hectare fishing lake. The campsite is situated just a 5 minute walk away from the village centre and the beautiful Vendée beaches are just 8kms away.

*A covered pool is planned for 2011

local area

The Vendéen coastline is an invigorating region of broad, sandy beaches, Atlantic rollers (perfect for surfers) and panoramic vistas. Seaside resorts such as Les Sables d'Olonne, Longeville and Jard all offer traditional sun and fun activities, elegant dining and soft sands, not to mention some wonderful gift shops and stylish boutiques. It's a unique region, and its sights aren't always run-of-the-mill. Take for example the amazing 'Le Puy du Fou' theme park where the gladiators fight on in the Roman amphitheatre and history is re-enacted under the biggest light show in France. For a salty, seaward adventure, head to the Vendée's scatter of offshore islands, car free and totally blissful. You can relax to a soundtrack of seabirds, surf or just silence. The low-lying island of Noirmoutier is typical of the region itself - low-key, unspoiled and bathed in tranquillity. The canals which criss-cross the marshlands are a paradise for birds and bird lovers, while the main towns of La Roche-sur-Yon, Fontenay-le-Comte and Challans offer plenty of diversions for a day's sightseeing and shopping. All are ideal stopovers for a hearty lunch, or reviving morning coffee before your drive back to the park past fields of towering sunflowers, reminding you that you really are in the heart of France.
